The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Wednesday, July 24, 1873.

Our Exchange List.

We are willing to pay postage on our entire exchange list, and unless otherwise ordered, will continue to send THE POST as heretofore.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. W. P. CANADAY from this date withdraws from the business management of THE POST. This action is deemed necessary on his part, because of his increased duties as Mayor of the city, much to our regret. We are therefore compelled to assume entire charge of THE POST as Editor and Publisher, and in doing so hope to have the continued support of the merchants and business men generally.

THE COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT will, as heretofore, be under the charge of Mr. G. N. HARRIS, who is also authorized to make contracts and collect moneys due us.

Mr. J. J. CASSIDY will also be attached to the staff editorial, as he has been, though unannounced, for some months past. Arrangements have been made for an increased force in the Fall, when business brightens, and we hope to make THE POST an institution in Wilmington not to be dispensed with.

All letters to this paper, therefore, whether on editorial or business matters, should be addressed to the undersigned. Respectfully,
J. C. MANN.

THE New Berne Times has a sensible article on the importance of patronizing home industry. This should be the burden of the songs of the State press. It is uncomprehensible to us how men can talk so much of their extreme love of the South, and then, as soon as they want any thing sent right off to the "Yankees" for it. This principal is wrong. Even if the articles needed are higher, it is cheaper in the end than sending the money out of the State. The reason is obvious. A is a merchant and sells goods to B who is a farmer. He sells grain to C who is a mechanic and has barrels for sale. Now if A wants barrels, he should buy of C who can then pay B, and he is enabled to pay A, and the money has swung clear around the circle and paid four debts. Had A spent the money out of the State for his barrels, he might never have received his pay from B. To our mind this is a plain proposition, not to be gainsayed, and the Tariff of the Government is on the same principle, established for the protection of the whole people.

We see hickory go out of this port to Northern cities to be made into ax handles for our own use! We pay therefore a higher price for them, though they can be manufactured cheaper there than here, because the profit and pay for the labor is constantly going out from us to enrich our neighbors. Every well wisher of this country should carefully encourage home industry and manufactures, for upon them depends our salvation.

Lieut. Robert Craig, United States Army, of the Signal Bureau, has been superseded by Professor Cleveland Abbi, in charge of the receipt of weather telegrams and determining the weather probabilities.

THE body of Sam Stainback, col., was disinterred at Ridgeway, N. C., last Saturday, and an inquest was held over the same. After investigation a verdict of death from strychnine administered by his wife in a dose of Epsom salts was obtained. The man died five weeks ago. He lived only three hours after taking the strychnine. The evidence is very strong and conclusive. The woman was committed to Warren county jail.

Ten U. S. soldiers of the garrison at Smithfield gave a concert the other evening for the benefit of the Methodist church at that place, and netted $50. The concert is to be repeated on the evening of the 4th.

"Bell's Life" states that Capt. Macchell has offered 8,000 guineas for Doncaster, the winner of the Derby, but Mr. Merry has refused the offer.

The Quincy (Ill.) Herald says: "The Weekly Montanan wants an editor. The last one was killed by shooting him full of shingle nails."

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

Experiments are now being made in New York with a new invention for naval vessels whereby the escaping steam of a naval vessel can be discharged without making it apparent. Such an invention, it is thought, would prove of practical utility in time of blockading purposes during a war.

A new torpedo boat now being built at New York for the service of the Government will contain what is known as the Fowler wheel, which admits of the boat being conducted by the man at the wheel and its movements being controlled by him, the engine in the meanwhile working but one way—steadily ahead. The invention comprised in this wheel is supposed to obviate the necessity of communication between the pilot and engineer.

The mail from Laredo brings news that a large party of Kickapoo Indians have camped on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, a few miles from there. It is supposed they are waiting for the river to fall to make a raid on that place. Preparations were in progress for a rigorous defense. These Indians have been in the habit of making incursions in that section, robbing ranches, killing settlers, and escaping into Mexico unpunished.

The British Government has received a dispatch from Sir Charles Baker, dated Khartoum, May 29, where he had safely arrived with the other Europeans of his command. He reports that the country as far south as the equator has been annexed to Egypt. The slave trade has been suppressed, and all rebellious movements and secret intrigues checked. The country is orderly and its government perfectly organized. A road has been opened to Zanzibar, free from interruption. He won a victory on the 6th of May, with only 105 men, over the army of the African chief, Onosio. His mission has been completed successfully.

Henry Ward Beecher, in a card to the Brooklyn Eagle says: "I have just returned to the city to learn that application has been made to Mrs. Victoria Woodhull for letters of mine, supposed to contain information respecting certain infamous stories against me. I have no objection to have the Eagle state, in any way it deems fit, that Mrs. Woodhull, or any other person or persons who may have letters of mine in their possession, have my cordial consent to publish them."

"In this connection, and at this time, I will only add that the stories and rumors which have for some time past been circulated about me are grossly untrue, and I stamp them in general and in particular as utterly false."

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Postal cards which are not delivered to the party addressed on account of his changing his place of habitation can be forwarded to him to the new address, the same as letters, without the payment of extra postage.

Several very important changes take place in the post office service on and after the first. First. The abolition of the franking privilege. Second. The extension of the postal card system to Canada. Third. Commencement of a direct mail exchange with the kingdoms of Sweden and Norway, under the rates established by the Postal Convention between those kingdoms and the United States. Fourth. Reduced rates of postage to Belgium to eight cents via England, six cents by direct steamers. Fifth. Near one hundred and fifty new money order offices go into operation.

The Chronicle says: "Several of our cotemporaries have notified their readers that on and after this date all mail matter must be prepaid in full, otherwise it will remain in the post office and not be forwarded. This is an error. Third-class mail matter must be prepaid in full, but letters, and matter subject to letter postage having one full rate (three cents) prepaid thereon, will be forwarded as heretofore. News papers and periodicals from a known office of publication sent to regular subscribers will be forwarded as heretofore, with or without prepayment. Third class matter, which now requires prepayment in full, consists of miscellaneous printed matter, book, and packages of merchandise."

The receipts of internal revenue for the month just closed amounted to $9,051,505 38; and for the year ending Monday, the total receipts were $115,066,727 61. For the year ending June 30, 1873, the amount realized was $131,770,946 73, but during the last session of Congress several sources of revenue were cut off by legislative enactment. Among these were the stamp duties under schedule "C," the gas tax, &c., and the change of the tax on tobacco from 32 and 16 cents per pound to 20 cents lost a considerable amount of revenue to the department. Besides this, in the receipts for 1873 was included a large amount of income tax. The estimated amount of receipts for the year just closed was $110,000,000; but this was overrun in the sum of $5,067,727 61.
